Magistrate Mysore Distt. has however recently furnished Govt. with some particulars regarding the applicant, in connection with the ~~quarterly~~ Statement of Newspapers for the 2nd quarter of 1911, an extract from which is put up for reference. As it is the practice now to address the D. G. of Police also in the matter, a Dft is put up for approval or other orders.

The permission applied for is only to convert the paper from a 'monthly' to a 'daily'. The information about the Editor's character and antecedents already on record appears sufficient, and permission may be granted

Extract from letter No. 25/S.B dated 19th August 1911 from the Supdt of Police Mysore District, received with the Mysore Govt. Comts letter No. 125 dated 30th Aug 1911 (G. No 129-10-104):

Mr. M. N. Bettiah, the Editor and Publisher of the Sarvajanahitopakarini is a Gangadikar Vokkaliga by caste and his age is about 34 years. He knows Kanarese and a little of English by practice, having worked as Compositor in the Mysore Standard, Govt Branch and Central Presses for a number of years. He has opened a small shop in Doddapetah where he keeps some medicines and scents for sale. He pays a monthly rent of Rs 5/- for the shop. He owns a house in the Kalamma Temple street and has let out the same for Rs 22/- per month. He says that he owns some landed property in Naganangala and 'Kasare' and that he pays an assessment of Rs 36/- per ½ year including house tax of Rs 18/-

The yearly subscription of the journal Sarvajanahitopakarini he publishes in Kanarese is only Re 1/- including postage. This journal contains mostly extracts of news & from other newspapers and periodicals, besides an advertisement for the sale of his medicines and scents. The journal cannot have a wide circulation and it seems to have (been) intended more for advertisement of the sale of [redacted] medicines and tents. which are likely to bring him some return along with the subscription amount of the journal. He has recently purchased in sale by the Civil Court the printing press formerly owned by B.C. Srinivasa Iyengar of the late Jagadguru magazine, and intends to start it under the name of Sarvajanahitopakarini press. He says that he will print the said journal hereafter in his own press to be opened sometime hence. He seems to be a man of ordinary character and means. His history shows that he is struggling to improve his means by degrees.
